

Meet Bob

Bob is the kind of grandpa every child secretly wishes they had — endlessly curious, always up for an adventure, and absolutely guaranteed to get himself into some sort of muddle before the day is done.

Grandpa to Willum and Dord, Bob adores his family with his whole heart. If they're exploring the garden, he's right there beside them. If they're chasing musical bugs, he's already halfway up a tree trying to spot the next one. And if there's trouble to be found... well, Bob usually finds it first.

He's brave in a slightly chaotic way, enthusiastic in a wonderfully contagious way, and full of stories that may or may not be entirely true. With his twinkly eyes, big ideas and even bigger heart, Bob turns ordinary moments into unforgettable adventures — whether he means to or not.
